

H2020
Marie Skłodowska-Curie actions
European Training Networks

Short Course on Entrepreneurship

This 1-day short course covers fundamentals of project management; funding for research activities and startups; high tech entrepreneurship. Particular attention is paid to the field of composite structures and materials.

Modules and Lecturers

- 8:45 – 10:15, High tech entrepreneurship, from theory to practice
Professor Marco Cantamessa, Department of Management and Production Engineering, Polito
- 10:30 – 12:30, Funding for research activities and funding for startups
Mr Jean-Louis Piraux, Senior project officer at Luxembourg Institute of Science and Technology
- 13:45 – 18:00, Project management and intercultural project management.
Mr Jan Backhaus, Free consultant in project management, international management and intercultural communication, Backhaus Consulting, Hamburg, Germany

Dates and Venue

23/11/2015, Monday – From 8:30 to 18:30

Room: 1P

Acknowledgements and Contacts

This short course is organized in the framework of the Marie Curie project FULLCOMP (www.fullcomp.net) and represents a network training event attended by students from other European institutions. For more info about this course and the FULLCOMP project, please contact Professor Erasmo Carrera and Dr. Marco Petrolo (erasmo.carrera@polito.it, marco.petrolo@polito.it, www.mul2.com).